6.2. Every GLLEP Board Director must be familiar with the obligations and powers contained within the GLLEP's Articles of Association, GLLEP's Assurance Framework and this Code of Conduct.

7. DUTY TO PROMOTE THE SUCCESS OF THE GLLEP DIRECTORS' BOARD

7.1. A GLLEP Board Director must act in the way they consider, in good faith, would be the most likely to promote the role of the GLLEP as detailed above. The term "good faith" allows GLLEP Board Directors freedom to exercise commercial judgment without fear of having the courts interfering with their commercial decisions.

7.2. Amongst other matters, a GLLEP Board Director must, in their decision making, have regard to:

- 7.2.1. The likely consequences of any decision;
- 7.2.2. The need to foster the GLLEP Directors' Board's relationships with suppliers, customers and others;

- 7.2.3. The impact of the GLEP Directors' Board's operations on the community and the environment;
- 7.2.4. The desirability of the GLEP Directors' Board in maintaining a reputation for high standards of business conduct; and
- 7.2.5. The need to act fairly as between members of the GLEP Directors' Board.

8. DUTY TO EXERCISE INDEPENDENT JUDGEMENT

- 8.1. A GLEP Board Director must act independently and with integrity, ensuring that they are always acting in the best interests of the GLEP as a whole and are not unlawfully influenced by a third party.
- 8.2. Certain acts of GLEP Board Directors may conflict with that duty, these conflicts may however be expressly permitted or are capable of being authorised under the GLEP's Articles of Association. Whether certain acts are permitted should always be checked very carefully and where appropriate, legal advice should be sought.

9. DUTY TO EXERCISE REASONABLE CARE, SKILL AND DILIGENCE

- 9.1. A GLEP Board Director must exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence. This means the care, skill and diligence that would be exercised by a reasonably diligent person with:

- 9.2. The GLEP Board Director must, when using or authorising the use by others of the resources of the GLEP, ensure that such resources are not used improperly, for political or personal purposes (including party political purposes).

10. DUTY TO AVOID CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- 10.1. GLEP Board Directors must avoid situations where they can, or have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the GLEP.
- 10.2. This applies in particular to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity. It is immaterial whether the GLEP could take advantage of the property, information or opportunity in question.

11. DUTY TO NOT ACCEPT BENEFITS FROM THIRD PARTIES

- 11.1. GLLEP Board Directors must not accept a benefit from a third party conferred by reason of:
- 11.1.1. Them being a GLLEP Board Director; or

The declaration must be made:
- 12.1.1. At a meeting of the GLLEP Directors’ Board; or
 - 12.1.2. By written notice to the chair of the GLLEP Directors’ Board.
- 12.2. GLLEP Board Directors should review their individual register of interest before each board meeting and decision-making committee meeting. If a disclosable interest has not been entered onto the GLLEP’s register, then the member must disclose the interest at any meeting of the GLLEP at which they are present, provided that the matter is not a ‘sensitive interest’ⁱⁱⁱ.

13. REGISTER OF GLLEP BOARD DIRECTORS’ INTERESTS

ⁱ For the purposes of this guidance, we are using the definition of a pecuniary interest as set out in the Localism Act 2011 and The Relevant Authorities (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) Regulations 2012. A pecuniary interest in a matter is one where there is a reasonable likelihood or expectation of appreciable financial loss or gain ⁱⁱ A Non-Pecuniary interest is any interest which is not listed in the Schedule to The Relevant Authorities \(Disclosable Pecuniary Interests\) Regulations 2012 \(No.1464\). Non-pecuniary interests do not have a financial or other material component. (They may arise from personal or family relationships or involvement in sporting, social or cultural activities.)

ⁱⁱⁱ A 'sensitive interest' is described in the Localism Act 2011 as a member or co-opted member of an authority having an interest, and the nature of the interest being such that the member or co-opted member, and the authority's monitoring officer, consider that disclosure of the details of the interest could lead to the member or co-opted member, or a person connected with the member or co-opted member, being subject to violence or intimidation.
