d) Duty to promote the success of the LEP directors' board

A LEP Board Director must act in the way he or she considers, in good faith, would be the most likely to promote the role of the LEP as detailed above. The term "good faith" allows LEP Board Directors' freedom to exercise commercial judgment without fear of having the courts interfering with their commercial decisions.

Amongst other matters, a LEP Board Directors' must, in his or her decision making, have regard to:-

1. The likely consequences of any decision;
2. The need to foster the LEP Directors' Board's relationships with suppliers, customers and others;
3. The impact of the LEP Directors' Board's operations on the community and the environment;

Certain acts of LEP Board Directors' which may conflict with that duty, these conflicts may however be expressly permitted or are capable of being authorised under the LEP's Articles of Association. Whether certain acts are permitted should always be checked very carefully and where appropriate, legal advice should be sought.

f) Duty to exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence

A LEP Board Director must exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence. This means the care, skill and diligence that would be exercised by a reasonably diligent person with:-

1. The general knowledge, skill and experience that may reasonably be expected of a person carrying out the functions carried out by the LEP Board director in relation to the LEP; and
2. The general knowledge, skill and experience that the LEP Board Director in question actually has.

The LEP Board director must, when using or authorising the use by others of the resources of the LEP, ensure that such resources are not used improperly, for political or personal purposes (including party political purposes).

g) Duty to avoid conflicts of interest

LEP Board Directors' must avoid situations where they can, or have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the LEP.

This applies in particular to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity. It is immaterial whether the LEP could take advantage of the property, information or opportunity in question.

h) Duty not to accept benefits from third parties

LEP Board Directors' must not accept a benefit from a third party conferred by reason of:-

1. His or her being a LEP Board Director; or
2. His or her doing (or not doing) anything as LEP Board Director.

A "third party" means a person other than the LEP's Statutory Boards, an associated body corporate or a person acting on behalf of the LEP's Statutory Boards or an associated body corporate.

i) Duty to declare interest in proposed transaction or arrangement

If LEP Board Directors' are in any way, directly or indirectly, pecuniaryⁱ or non-pecuniaryⁱⁱ (including membership of any Trade Union, political party or local authority that relates to your LEP duties) interested in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the LEP, they must declare the nature and extent of that interest to the other LEP Board Directors'. The declaration must be made:-

1. At a meeting of the LEP Directors' Board; or
2. By written notice to the chair of the LEP Directors' Board.

LEP Board Directors' should review their individual register of interest before each board meeting and decision making committee meeting. If a disclosable interest has not been entered onto the LEP's register, then the member must disclose the interest at any meeting of the LEP at which they are present, provided that the matter is not a 'sensitive interest'ⁱⁱⁱ.

j) Register of LEP board directors' interests

LEP Board Directors' must, within 28 days of taking office as a LEP Board Director, notify their LEP Chief Executive and Accountable Body's S151/S73 Officer of any:-

1. Disclosable pecuniary interest, where the pecuniary interest is theirs or their spouses or civil partner's, or is the pecuniary interest of somebody with whom they are living with as a spouse, or as if they were civil partners.
2. Non-pecuniary interest which their LEP has decided should be included in the register or which their LEP consider should be included if they are to fulfil their duty to act in conformity with the Seven Principles of Public Life. These non-pecuniary interests will necessarily include their membership of any Trade Union.

Following any disclosure of an interest not on the LEP register or the subject of pending notification, the LEP Board Director must notify the LEP Chief Executive and S151/S73 Officer of the interest within 28 days beginning with the date of disclosure.

Unless dispensation has been granted, LEP Board Directors' must not participate in any discussion of, vote on, or discharge any function related to any matter in which they have a pecuniary interest. Additionally, LEP Directors' Board members must observe the restrictions their LEP places on their involvement in matters where they have a pecuniary or non-pecuniary interest as defined by their LEP.

k) Other duties

LEP Board Directors' must also remember that they are subject to other statutory duties other than those mentioned above including, for example:

1. The principles laid down by the Committee on Standards in Public Life (Nolan Committee) for those holding public office, namely:-

2. Obey the LEP's Articles of Association and decisions taken under it.
3. Are honest, and remember that the LEP Directors' Board's property belongs to it, and not to them or its shareholders (if any).
4. Are diligent, careful and well-informed about the LEP Directors' Board's affairs. If they have any special skills or experience, use them.
5. Make sure the LEP Directors' Board keeps records of their decisions.
6. Remember that they remain responsible for the work they give to others.
7. Avoid situations where their interests conflict with those of the LEP Directors' Board's. When in doubt, disclose potential conflicts quickly.
8. Seek external advice where necessary, particularly if the LEP is ever in financial difficulty.

LEP Board Directors' may take, in the furtherance of their duties, independent professional advice if necessary and agreed by other LEP Board Directors', at the LEP's expense.

All LEP Board Directors' should bring an independent judgement to bear on issues of strategy, performance, resources (including key appointments), and standards of conduct.
